for of certain merchant marine functions to the department of commerce and their consolidation under an assistant secretary for merchant marine is recommended in the annual report of Secretary Hoover.

He finds the last fiscal year ending in June the most prosperous in American history.

Year Never Surpassed.

"The fiscal year 1925-26 has been one never surpassed in our history in the volume of production and consumption, in the physical quantity of exports and imports, and in the rate of wages," Hoover said. "There has been practically no unemployment. Further progress has been made in the efficiency of management and labor and in scientific research and invention.

were a few points where conditions were less satisfactory, as in the New England textile industry, two or three sections of the agricultural industry and the bituminous coal industry. On the whole, however, the country was able to maintain the highest standard of living in its history, a standard far above that in most other countries of the world at this or any other time. This represents a remarkable recovery from the great losses incurred by the nation in the war.

Production Shows Gain.

"Of special significance is the fact that manufacturing production, considered as a whole, showed a gain

The cost, even as compared with the big mills, was only 25-35%.

The improvement was general throughout almost every branch of manufacturing industry. Although conditions in the cotton industry are somewhat unsatisfactory, in New England, the gain in consumption of electricity in cotton and in spindle activity, which appeared early in the calendar year 1925, has since been well maintained.

There has been, however, a loss in the last fiscal year as compared with the year before. The rapid expansion of the output of electric power consumers, with consequent lowering of operating costs in the many industries which are increasingly using electricity as motive force.

"Although the prices of commodities was in the fiscal year 1922-23 were practically no higher than in the preceding year, the value of sales of retail stores and mail-order houses showed a considerable increase. The fact that the sales of mail-order houses were more than one-third greater than in the fiscal year 1922-23 is a clear evidence of the gradual improvement in buying power among the farm population.

ADVERTISING IN THE CONSTITUTION PAYS THE ADVERTISER AND SAVES THE BUYER.

Washington, November 28.—Whole-sale smuggling of aliens has been practically eliminated by the enlarged border patrol, Secretary of Labor Davis announced in his annual report tonight.

The deluge of mail from unknown persons began even before the trial was under way and has mounted steadily. Mrs. Hall and Willie and Henry Stevens, her two brothers, have received sympathy, denunciation, advice, chances to adopt children and opportunities to contribute to worthy causes every time the mail man came around.

Mrs. Hall has kept to herself whatever amusement she derived from matrimonial advances. She has not commented on her mail. Her letters and has written a number of times quoting the Scriptures to support her contention that Henry did it," said Mrs. Stevens.

"Many of them praise the fight we are making."

A few of the latter are anonymous, she said, and when they are not she answers them with a note of appreciation.

All of the three defendants on trial are interested in their mail, but none so much as the eccentric Will. He enjoys every line and can hardly wait for his attorneys to go through it before turning it over to him.

bine street, had a quantity of clothes stolen from her home.

Strict Watch Kept.

Saturday many burglaries were reported to detectives, which included articles in every description, that might be found on the burglar's shopping list, or that of his wife. There seems to be a leaning, however, toward jewelry, automobile tires, overcoats and similar knick-nacks.

Chief Beavers has issued orders to all men on beats to look up suspicious characters. A strict watch is being kept in all quarters, and the public is earnestly requested not to take up with strangers.

The chairman of the republican state committee, Daniel F. Field, said today:

G. O. P. Prediction.

"I believe we will carry every county in the state, even Androscoggin, which is usually democratic. I am confident that Arthur R. Gould, candidate for the United States senate, will be elected by a substantial majority."

General Irish Election May Follow Republican Raids on Guard Barracks

Motive of Attacks Shrouded in Mystery—Cause of Emmon de Valera In- jured by Killings.

Editors Note:—Since the closing of the election in London, the attention of the world has been attracted to Emmon de Valera, the irreconcilable Irish republican, who has come out with a declaration of independence for Ireland. His frequently repeated demands that citizens of the Irish Free State be sworn taking an oath of allegiance to King George VI. has been interpreted by many as a part of a fixed policy looking toward overthrow of the Irish government, which is working in harmony with the British empire scheme. In view of these developments, the following article from the United News correspondent in Dublin assumes added significance.

BY GEORGE MACDONAGH.
United News Special Correspondent.
Dublin, November 28.—A general election in Ireland may result from recent republican attacks on civic guard barracks throughout the country. The Free State government would welcome such an election and Redman insists that he is a bonafide Maine resident.

In 1924, the late Senator Bert M. Fernald, republican, was reelected by a majority of 51,355 over Redman in a total vote of 246,211. The election tomorrow is for the remainder of Fernald's term, expiring in 1931.
In the state election last September the total vote for governor was 281,524 and thus combined vote for congressman was 173,030. Brewster was reelected governor by a margin of 20,028. More the aggregate majority of the four republican congressmen reelected were 40,885.

Gould, an Aroostook county lumberman and railroad builder, was nominated in the primary contest by a lead of about 3,300 over his nearest opponent, former Governor Percival P. Baxter. The total republican primary vote was about 61,000.

REV. FRANK MORGAN OPENS BIBLE SERIES

The Rev. Frank Morgan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Augusta, Ga., and son of the noted London Bible scholar, G. Campbell Morgan, who now lives in Athens, Ga., preached three times Sunday at the North Avenue Presbyterian church in the opening of a series of sermons to be delivered there every day through Friday of this week.

The largest congregations ever to gather in the North Avenue church turned out to hear Mr. Morgan preach Sunday night, when he preached his text: "The Rich Young Man." His sermon on the morning service and afternoon services were equally as interesting and drew hundreds to the church.

Mrs. H. C. Pearson, of 150 Superior street, who was riding with her husband and small child, was injured when the car driven by Mrs. G. T. Taylor, of Decatur, was slightly injured, according to the report of Traffic Officer S. D. Gunn.

Other accidents on Grady hospital records included the names of A. H. Stevens, 70, who suffered a fractured left arm in an automobile accident; G. W. Vernon, 60, whose right wrist was fractured in an automobile accident; and Thomas Bailey, 13, whose right arm was fractured when he attempted to crank an automobile. Police had no record of any of these accidents. The victims were treated at Grady hospital and dismissed.

BOMBS ARE USED IN LABOR BATTLE

Chicago, November 28.—Recurrence of the labor war that swept Chicago five years ago when numerous shoe repair shops were wrecked in a bitter union fight was seen today in the bombing of three shops on the south side.

Although the infernal machines were carefully planted and caused considerable damage, no one was injured.

The first bomb exploded at dawn, the second a few hours later and the last at 10:45 o'clock a. m.

Police were at a loss to explain the bombings although it was reported that they resulted from refusal of owners to accede to demands of the Shoe Repairmen's association.

The first bomb exploded at the shoe repair shop of Thomas Norse. It was a black-powder bomb, which blew the rear of the building and windows were broken in nearby buildings.

Another bomb exploded in the rear of Samuel R. V. shop. It blew in the rear door and smashed windows for a block.

Rosen told police he believed the bomb was meant for Isadore Vagman, who conducts a tailor shop up door. He said Vagman had had labor troubles recently.

It was said that Rosen had been a member of the association but that he had withdrawn after an official had been sent to jail.

Building Damaged.
The third bomb did considerable damage to an old frame building in which is located Samuel Schneider's shoe repair shop. The hall and stairway to the second floor, where three families lived, was wrecked.

Police were trying to learn whether the Shoe Repairmen's association was in any way responsible.

Nine officials were indicted in the original bombing outbreak in 1921 and 1922 but they were freed when Judge Joseph B. David instructed a jury to return verdicts of "not guilty."

Two bombers, however, Richard Burke and James Barry, were sentenced to from one to 20 years in the penitentiary.

Bratiano, whose powerful influence in Romania, is well recognized, will reach Paris tomorrow, and Nicholas Jorga, head of the national party and leader of the opposition, is already here.

Dynastic possibilities arising from such a contingency as the death of King Ferdinand, who is reported to be doing as well as could be expected, are likely to be settled right here in Paris.

The Orient express leaving Paris at 6:42 this evening was watched for Carol's appearance, but Carol was not there and the train left without him. A telephone call to his home in the suburbs of Neuilly indicated the fact that he was "awaiting orders."

He was asked, "will you meet your mother?" and he replied: "Certainly."

OVER DOZEN HURT IN AUTO CRASHES

More than a dozen persons Sunday narrowly escaped serious injury in a series of automobile accidents over the city. Three of the motorists involved received cuts and bruises which necessitated medical attention.

Five persons were slightly injured at Pryor and Edgewood avenue when an automobile driven by Mrs. Gertrude Smith, of East Point, collided with a car operated by Hammond Myers, of 71 Wynnan street. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gunn, of East Point, who were in Mrs. Smith's car, were badly cut, and were carried to Grady hospital in Greenberg & Bond's private ambulance.

Alice and Thomas Smith, children of Mrs. Smith, escaped injury in the accident. Mr. Myers was shaken up and bruised. At the request of both parties, Call Officers J. E. McDaniel and J. H. Crankshaw made no case.

Soldier in Smash.
Sergeant L. Huff, of Company L, Fort McPherson, was injured about the chest, and cut on the left arm when his automobile collided with one driven by George Avery, negro, on Lee street, near McCall's crossing.

A case of reckless driving was made against Huff by Patrolman H. O. Hambrick and K. A. Wooster. According to police reports, Huff's car ran into a telephone pole after swerving Avery's machine.

Mrs. H. C. Pearson, of 150 Superior street, who was riding with her husband and small child, was injured when the car driven by Mrs. G. T. Taylor, of Decatur, was slightly injured, according to the report of Traffic Officer S. D. Gunn.

World Is Growing Worse, DR. HOUGHTON READS COLLEGE VIEWS ON MORALS Young Atlanta Tells Pastor

A large proportion of modern youth, despite the native optimism of the young, believe the world is growing worse, Dr. Will H. Houghton told a congregation of over 3,000 persons at the Baptist tabernacle on Sunday night. This statement was made after a study of several hundred replies sent the pastor by college men and women of Atlanta, to a questionnaire he recently sent out among them. The sermon Sunday night, one of a series of four based upon these replies, was on the subject, "What Youth Thinks About the World."

Dr. Houghton said that he was surprised at this pessimistic outlook in the part of young people. The troubles that were mainly cited in the answers were crime, impurity and law breaking. It was significant in many of the replies, it was noted, that crime and law-breaking were classed as two separate and distinct things.

The majority of the youth, said Dr. Houghton, blame the parents for trouble in the modern home. One young man wrote, "The parents are to blame for the trouble in the home. They are not doing their duty as fathers and mothers."

Frankness or Daring?
Modern youth's self-analysis, Dr. Houghton said, may be summed up in three words—frankness, sophistication and liberty. This generation, said the preacher, does things and boasts about them which were never mentioned before. "They say," he said, "well, we are honest about it," and they then charge the rest with hypocrisy. "Is it frankness or daring?" the minister asked. "It is possible for frankness to mistake loudness for brilliancy, sophistication to mistake from over-indulgence in pleasure, the preacher declared."

He pointed out that a pleasure-loving age is constantly seeking new thrills, until they become jaded and over-sophisticated. This, he said, accounts for the prevalence of youthful suicides.

No Mental Liberty.
Speaking of liberty, Dr. Houghton said that there is no such thing as mental liberty. Even when declared, it is influenced in their thought by heredity, surroundings, the books they read, the things they see and hear, the moving pictures they witness.

"Perhaps the most influential thing in moulding the thought of the youth of today is the moving picture," the preacher asserted. "Every sane person realizes that this is giving a wrong conception of life, and yet it is this movie-mind that calls itself free and independent and pretends to sit in judgment on the mind, God and self."

"Some men," he said, "think themselves free when they have only lost the way."

64 Join Church.
Sixty-four persons joined the Baptist tabernacle on Sunday, at the close of the morning and evening services, both of which drew great congregations.

Dr. Houghton, for the third in his series of "Youth" sermons, will preach next Sunday night on what youth thinks of the relation between the sexes in today's world. Last night that many of the replies to this group of questions indicated much criticism, chiefly on the part of the young men, of the "petting" of the girl's girl's dress, chiefly on the line that the feminine has not lost its mystery, allure and reverence by over much frankness. He stated that he will read the replies and deal with the subject fully next Sunday night.

Counts Decide To Fight Duel Over Woman

Budapest, November 28.—(AP)—Count Andras Bethlen, son of the Hungarian premier, and Count Paul Amassy, prominent in social circles, will fight a duel Tuesday. It is hinted that the favors of a certain young woman was the cause of the trouble between them.

The young Count Bethlen recently returned from New York, where he spent a year learning the banking business.

MISS MINNIE E. COLE DIED HERE SUNDAY

Miss Minnie E. Cole, 75, a native of Westport, N. Y., died Sunday afternoon at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Cole, here, after a brief illness.

Miss Cole came to Atlanta 43 years ago, and since that time served with the Southern Bell Telephone company under W. T. Gentry and J. E. Brown, past presidents. She was a member of the West End Presbyterian church, devoting her personal attention for years to the duty of providing flowers for the church services.

Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the West End church. Interment will be in Westview cemetery. Honorary pallbearers will be: Thomas H. G. A. McGeachy, W. H. Moor, R. M. ## SPRINGPLACE MAN KILLED BY AUTO

Chattahoochee, Ga., November 28.—(Special.)—Aaron Elrod, 65-year-old man, was instantly killed this afternoon by an overturned auto as he and a friend, Price Worley, were returning from Chattanooga. The driver lost control of the car and it turned turtle, falling on Elrod.

Sheriff Wilbanks reported he found some whisky in the car and placed Worley in jail pending an investigation. Elrod leaves his widow and six children.

Chauffeur, 21, And Widow, 65, Reveal Wedding

Deerfield, Mass., November 28.—Miss Estelle Woodward, 65-year-old millionaire widow, has eloped with her 21-year-old chauffeur, Hermac Latourneau, this fashionable suburb learned Sunday. It had been kept secret since their marriage, October 10.

Philibosian Will Exhibit Charming Array of Antique Pieces at Beautiful Store

One Huge Room To Be Completely Furnished in Genuine Antiques Recently Purchased From New York Dealer.

On a recent buying trip to New York Stephen Philibosian and J. C. Millam, manager of the big furniture, rug and drapery store, purchased the entire stock of a prominent antique dealer, and this wonderful old furniture has just arrived at the store's warehouse.

According to Mr. Millam, it is the firm's plan to fit up a huge room at the store with nothing but antiques, showing many quaint old pieces, each of which has a very interesting and ancient pedigree.

The room will not only show furniture, but the antique theme will be carried out in rugs and tapestry, affording all lovers of antique furnishings a rare opportunity to see what beautiful effects may be obtained with the genuine pieces.

Work is now in progress uncrating the merchandise at the warehouse and getting it in readiness for the unique display. An invitation will be extended the public through the columns of this newspaper at an early date to visit the display at the store.

Many fine homes throughout the country are furnished largely with antiques and it is to meet the growing demand for this kind of merchandise that Philibosian made the recent purchase.

The store of Stephen Philibosian, Inc., may be depended upon at all times to carry furniture which expresses the very latest vogue in home furnishings.

Prohis Approve Plan of Andrews For Distilleries

Washington, November 28.—(AP)—Purchase and distribution of medicinal whisky by a private corporation, as proposed by the treasury department, in its last recommendation on the subject, was approved today by Wayne B. Wheeler of the Anti-Saloon league. In a statement announcing a meeting of the legislative committee of the league this week to consider such proposals, Wheeler declared he knew of no opposition to the department's proposal, provided the activities of the private corporation were conducted under existing regulations.

"There was opposition to the original plan for government ownership and distribution," he explained. "The secretary of the treasury never intended this plan. If the last bill proposed included the authority needed to limit the distilleries that may open, this will go far to settle the question as to whether it is best to buy liquors abroad or manufacture them in the United States. It is an added reason for early action on the bill which General Andrews requested."

Automobile salesmen and manufacturers are unduly disturbed, Wheeler said, over the recent decision of the supreme court authorizing the forfeiture of automobiles under the old internal revenue laws when seized for running-ram. Their fear that automobiles innocently sold on the installment plan would be a total loss when so seized, were not well founded, he stated. They have two remedies, he explained, by requiring a bond of the purchaser that the automobile will not be used for illegal purposes, or by recourse to the method now provided by law for the innocent owners when the automobiles are seized under section 3450 of the revised statutes.

MRS. JOHN D. MOSS DIES AT ATHENS

Athens, Ga., November 28.—(Special.)—Mrs. John D. Moss, one of Athens' most prominent women, died at an early hour Sunday morning. The funeral services will be conducted from Prince Avenue Baptist church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, interment following at Oconee cemetery, this city.

Mrs. Moss became violently ill while visiting in Boston, five months ago, an illness from which she never recovered. She submitted to surgical treatment at the time she was stricken and was later able to be brought back to Athens. However, her improvement was of short duration and several weeks ago she was taken to an Atlanta sanatorium for treatment, but with no permanent benefit. A death ensued a few days following her return to Athens.

Prior to her marriage, she was Miss Byron Hill, a member of an old and cultured family of Richmond, Va. She came to Athens as a bride 37 years ago and has ever since been numbered among the representative women of this city.

Mrs. Moss is survived by her husband, John D. Moss, prominent cotton factor; two daughters, Mrs. J. W. Frost of Athens and Mrs. Harlow of New Haven, Conn.; three sons, R. L. Moss III, of Athens; John H. Moss, of Putnam, Conn.; and William B. Moss, of Atlanta.

North Carolina Textile Mills To Fight Taxes

Charlotte, N. C., November 28.—(AP)—Textile enterprises in North Carolina have issued a warning that they will not stand a further imposition of local taxes since the post-war prosperity enjoyed by the textile mills until 1920 has entirely disappeared.

This "warning" was embraced in a report of the committee on taxation at the fall meeting of the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' association held at Pinehurst Saturday. The report was submitted by Bernard M. Cone, of Greensboro, chairman of the committee, was unanimously adopted by the association.

The committee's report was made in view of the approaching 1927 session of the North Carolina legislature, and in view of the fact that 1927 is the year for the revaluation of local assessments.

"It is the recollection of your chairman," the report says, "that in the revaluation of 1920 the assessment of the textile mills was quadrupled as against the assessments on other classes of property being merely doubled."

"This was probably due to the fact that at that time the mills were continuing to enjoy the general prosperity of the immediate post-war years. It is a strange fact that while prosperity has been on the decline since 1920, until for the years 1924-25-26 it has entirely evaporated, local taxes, on the other hand have been on a constantly ascending scale until, aside from the income taxes paid to the state and federal governments, the local taxes paid by many of our cotton mills amounts to more than is left for the mills themselves. The local taxes amount to more than 50 per cent of the income tax, in addition to the 12-1/2 per cent federal and 4 per cent state income taxes."

Alabama Solons Convene Dec. 28 In Extra Session

Montgomery, Ala., November 28.—(AP)—An extra session of the Alabama legislature will be held December 28, to consider a $25,000,000 highway bond issue and a two-cent income tax levy. Call for the extra session was issued by Governor W. W. Brandon Saturday night, at the request of Governor-elect Bibb Graves.

Highway funds made available by a bond issue of $25,000,000 passed in 1922, will be exhausted by the time contracts already let are completed and it is imperative that highway building continue, said Mr. Graves in his request.

The proposed gasoline tax which is in addition to a levy of two cents now shared in by the 67 counties of the state, is for the purpose of providing a sinking fund for the retirement of the new issue.

WILKES CLUB BOY, WINNER OF PRIZE, GOES TO CHICAGO

Washington, Ga., November 28.—(Special.)—Frank Waters, the 18-year-old son of Coroner M. P. Waters of Wilkes county, left Saturday for a week's trip to Chicago to attend the National Live Stock exposition, with all expenses paid.

Frank won his trip on account of the record yield of seed cotton on a single acre, the prize being offered by the Georgia railroad and the Atlanta and West Point railroad to the two club boys showing the largest yields of cotton in any county traversed by their lines. Grady Ledbetter, of Wilkes county, was winner of first prize, and Frank Waters was a close second.

According to County Agent C. W. Wheeler, who checked the record made by Frank Waters, he produced nearly 3,000 pounds of seed cotton at a cost of 6 cents per pound.

In addition to the free trip to Chicago, Waters won the cash prize offered by the recent Wilkes Legion fair for highest cotton yield in Wilkes county, amounting to $25. This was Frank's first year's boy work, and he is immensely pleased with the result. There are 80 boys enrolled in the Wilkes County club.

ATHENS SEEKS STOP ON AIR MAIL LINE

Athens, Ga., November 28.—(Special.)—Congressman C. H. Brand has been assured that the postoffice department will seriously consider Athens as a station for the proposed Atlanta-New York air mail service, it is learned.

The proposed service will be carried on by contract let by the postoffice department. Ever since the matter was first proposed Athens has been endeavoring to be recognized as a station. The chamber of commerce here and Postmaster Paul L. Smith have been active in putting forward Athens' claims, and Congressman Brand has been working to have Athens made a stop.

Cobb County Women Voters LADIES OF MARIETTA HAVE THINGS THEIR OWN WAY : Wrest Supremacy From Males

By Beale S. Stafford.
Men have been politically deposed in Marietta.

Women robbed them of their voting supremacy in Cobb county by the same manner in which the feminine element invaded tontorial sanctuaries. Mere man now cannot hold office in Marietta unless the women approve of him and his policies.

The above statement requires a little bit of elucidation in the fact that women came to the top when they tactfully undertook to put over the $90,000 bond issue and build a new high school. Each woman took under her wing five neighborhood women to explain the situation, urging them to place their votes correctly. Every arrangement was made to convey them to the polls on election day, with boys, girls and mothers on duty to lend an appealing note to the project.

In the Round-Up.
In the round-up there were only 41 votes cast against bonds. This did not imply there was not great opposition, but the fear of women present at the polls and seeking educational advantages for their children, caused the men to dread meeting these militant voters.

The bond issue went over with a bang.

The new high school stands as a monument to their victorious efforts. On the fly leaf of the first school annual, published after the completion of the school, an expression of appreciation gave credit to Mrs. Ralph Northcutt, Mrs. Mac Fowler and the women of Marietta. Since they hold the ballot of votes, Marietta women propose to change the city's antiquated charter, which does not even call for a sanitary department. This of course will never do in these modern times. Instead of flouting their prejudices in the face of Cobb county representatives set their opinions, they skirted around and studied franchises of several progressive cities, drawing up one to suit Marietta's requirements, which met the indorsement of mayor, council, boards of light, water and education. An overwhelming number of names were signed to the petition, showing that the masses desired a new form of government.

Women Strike Snag.

But here they struck a snag! First it has to be introduced in the Georgia assembly by Cobb county legislators before the senate passes upon it. Although pressure was brought to bear, the legislators declined to offer the measure allowing Marietta citizens to vote for or against the new franchise.

Women Strike Snag.

The women contend politics lay at the bottom of their rebuff, saying that the ridiculous part of it is that none of these representatives explained why the document was fought, when they appeared before the Women's club for this specific purpose.

Suffice it to say, no member of the former political ring has held office since. Nor did they even offer for reelection. The voice of the women had sent shuddering reverberations through Marietta.

A vacancy occurred not long ago in the police force, subject to appointment by the chief. The name of a candidate went forth who failed to measure up to the standard of feminine voters.

"I've decided not to have any police force," stated the chief. "The women have telephoned me and worried me nearly to death."

The bina-uniformed appointee, modeled after the one large policeman whom Thomas Cadett, The Constitution's English journalist, saw on the streets of Atlanta, met the approval of the women.

One-Way Traffic Law.

Recently, it became necessary to have a one-way traffic law around the little square which figures conspicuously in the moving picture relative to The General, the old wood burning engine of civil war fame. Regulations drawn up by the mayor and council were entirely satisfactory to the women. The law affected some more than others. One resident claimed that one-way traffic directed customers away from his place of business. Many citizens appeared before council fully determined to state their opposition to the law going into effect, but failed to voice their sentiments. When queried about their stand, the men stated that the women were all for it, so there wasn't any use to fight. Marietta's traffic law went into immediate effect.

Score three for the tactful woman voter.

HUSBAND AND WIFE BOTH HOLD OFFICE IN MILTON COUNTY

Alpharetta, Ga., November 28.—(Special.)—The recent election of Mrs. Erwin Stewart as treasurer of Milton county recalls an unusual situation in Milton county where a woman, Mrs. A. W. Smith is treasurer and her husband, A. W. Smith also holds a county office, that of sheriff. It is thought this is the only instance in the state where husband and wife each hold county offices.

It is said here that the election of Mrs. Stewart brings the total to four women in Georgia who are serving as treasurer of a county. Miss Margaret Culberson, in Fulton; Mrs. R. T. Huber, Jr., in Stewart; Mrs. Smith in Milton, and Mrs. Stewart in Sumter.

POWER MERGER AIDS WAYCROSS TERRITORY

Waycross, Ga., November 28.—(Special.)—Another forward step in the development of Waycross as an electrical center has been made, it was announced today by the Ware county Light and Power company.

The Pinellas county power company and the Central Florida Power company have been organized into a new company to be known as the Florida Power corporation. This is being done by the Flitkin Public Utility interests which owns the power plant here and is making many extensions thereof.

Waycross is on the hydro-electric line which this company is running from Tallahassee to Jesup.

Italian, Madeira and Chinese Gift Linens

LINEN is the gift immemorial, in all lands, at all times. The Egyptians prized it, the Babylonians, and in the Middle Ages it was precious, enriched as it was by priceless needlework. During the Renaissance entire convents were given over to the instruction and the learning of Linen Needlecraft.

We mention these matters not to display virtuosity, flaxen or otherwise, but to impress the fact that we understand the importance and appreciate the significance of fine linen, and that we have gathered these Christmas linens with feeling and an endearing attachment.

Fancy linens from everywhere, a superb variety of matchless beauty, all ready for merry gift buyers.

Take PLUTO WATER because it is a water

Let's be a little sensible about this matter of internal cleanliness. Let's forget for a moment the fads of the hour and consider what we take a physic for.

We take a physic to clean out our insides just as we take a bath to clean ourselves externally.

That is why a real physic—an effective, safe physic—must be a water physic.

And that is exactly what Pluto Water is. It is a physic water.

Pluto washes the intestines. It cleans them clean. It doesn't deposit irritating drugs in you. It just goes gently through—clearing the intestinal tract of poisonous accumulations in a short time after taking, usually in 30 minutes to 2 hours.

Pluto has seen a thousand and one physic fads rise up only to ficker out. It has remained the reliable standard American physic for over 25 years.

It works because it washes. And that's what you want a physic to do. Anything less than a thorough washing isn't a physic. Start today with a trial bottle of Pluto Water from French Lick Springs. All druggists sell it. Physicians prescribe it.

WATSON ELECTION CONTEST LIKELY

Fort Wayne, Ind., November 28.—(AP)—R. Earl Peters, chairman of the democratic state committee, will go to Washington within a week or ten days to confer with Senator Peter Gerry, of Rhode Island, chairman of the democratic national senatorial committee, over the possibility of contesting the election of Senator James E. Watson, to the senior United States senatorship from Indiana in the November 2 election, he said today.

It has not been determined definitely, the chairman said, to contest the election of Senator Watson by what official figures showed to be an 11-383 majority over his opponent, Albert Stump, democrat, Indianapolis. However, a sufficient number of alleged irregularities in the voting, tabulation of votes, use of absent voters' ballots and registration of voters have been exposed in a half dozen populous counties to warrant the national senatorial committee in giving such a course serious consideration.

Will Hold Conference.
"Two or three counties remain to be investigated," Peters said, "and when that is completed and the evidence compiled, I will go to Washington to confer with the senatorial committee. Numerous absolute violations of the election laws have come to my attention in affidavits and these are being checked carefully before we proceed further."

"After the election I was besieged by both democrats and republicans who sought an investigation, particularly of alleged abuses of absent voters' ballots, and of other supposed violations of the law in the matter."

"HAD TO BE CARRIED LIKE A BABY"

Quickly put on feet again by simple home treatment

Laid up for two weeks with an attack of rheumatism or neuritis in the legs, a Canadian writes all the way from Moncton, N. B., to tell of the quick relief he got when he began using a simple, old-fashioned home remedy.

"I could not walk for two weeks," he writes. "I had to be carried around like a baby. But one bottle of Sloan's Liniment put me on my feet again."

Sloan's gives real help to all kinds of muscular pain because it stirs up your body's own curative forces to drive out the germs and poisons that cause the trouble. Just pat it on lightly—and a healing tide of fresh, germ-destroying blood is sent tingling through the pain-ridden tissues. No rubbing! Let the medicine itself that does the work.

Soon the swelling and inflammation go down. The aching stops. Almost suddenly you find yourself really free from pain, really comfortable at last. Get a bottle today and have it on hand. All druggists—35 cents.

MOUNT ZION CHURCH, COLORED, IS BURNED

As the congregation of Mount Zion church, colored, at Piedmont avenue and Baker street, gathered for worship Sunday morning it found its edifice enveloped in flames and firemen already gallantly at work.

And while the church burned and the firemen worked, the pastor gathered his large flock about him in the street, and the service proceeded at 11 o'clock, as is usual. By the time services had been held a close the fire had spent itself and the congregation looked on the ashes of what had been a magnificent wooden edifice.

The church committee was called into an extraordinary session and immediate plans begun for the rebuilding of the structure.

The origin of the blaze was not determined.

GILDA GRAY HIT AT MIDNIGHT SHOW MONDAY MORNING

Gilda Gray, one of Mr. Ziegfeld's feminine luminaries, demonstrated to an Atlanta audience Monday morning at the Howard theater that she is the foremost advocate of Hawaiian dancing, siva-siva, or shimmy, as you will. With a large company of performers, for the most part composed of Hawaiian natives, Miss Gray was covered for several minutes after the close of her act.

On the screen, Miss Gray is quite as pleasing as in her stage appearance, that is, as far as possible. The picture, if by some strange trick of fate, you have eluded the Howard theater, is titled "Alona of the South Sea." It is one of the most beautiful pictures ever made as far as lighting and locale is concerned. In it Miss Gray attains a personal triumph that is far beyond what is to be expected of a novice.

Miss Gray is by no means the only outstanding character of the South sea drama. Warner Baxter is a convincing as the native lover of the diminutive island dancer. Percy Marmont, the talented English actor, is cast in the role of a young white man on the island who is slowly drinking himself to destruction because of the unfaithfulness of the "girl back home."

But given Gilda Gray, a moonlight night on the beach, which incidentally is one of the most beautiful scenes of the film, he retrieves his self-respect. The "conflict" scenes, or to the day folks, the fight scenes, are most impressive. William Powell gives a duplication of his past excellent performances. All in all, it is a really entertaining film. —L.M.O.

OKLAHOMA WINS IN LIVE STOCK
JUDGING CONTEST

Chicago, November 28.—Competing against 22 colleges from every section of the country, Oklahoma A. and M. won the collegiate livestock judging contest, of the International Livestock exposition here at which more than 12,000 animals, representing a value of $2,000,000, are on exhibit.

Eastern and southeastern institutions fared poorly in the competition. Out of a possible 5,000 points for judging horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, the Oklahoma representatives were credited with 4,467. Kansas Agricultural college was second with 4,376. Nebraska third with 4,350.

Ohio state captured ninth place with 4,191 points; Ontario Agricultural college was 13th with 4,085; West Virginia, 14th, 4,048; North Carolina, 21st, 3,759; Penn. State, 22nd, 3,754; and Massachusetts Agricultural college, 23rd and last, 3,678.

NATACHA AND JEAN CONTINUE BATTLE OVER VALENTINO

Chicago, November 28.—(AP)—Two women fought and lost earthly battles for Rudolph Valentino, today continued the struggle in death.

In New York, a few days ago, Natacha Rambova, second divorcee, wife of the film star, gave out spirit messages she said she had received from him.

In Chicago today, Jean Acker, first wife of Valentino, said the actor did not believe in spirit messages and expressed the opinion that none had been received.

"Rudolph Valentino did not believe in spirit messages," she said. "He was intelligent and if he had lived the world would have heard of him in other ways. Even if such messages were received, they should have been too sacred to broadcast."

ESME HOWARD, SON OF AMBASSADOR, DIES IN LONDON

Washington, November 28.—Esme Howard, son of Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, died this morning in London. It was learned tonight at the British embassy.

Mr. Howard was 22 years old and the eldest son of the ambassador. He had been ill for several years and recently had returned from Switzerland where he went in an attempt to recover his health. It was stated at the embassy, he spent some time in Washington last year.

Ambassador Howard was with his son when he died. He was called home in October when his son's condition became serious.

$1,000,000 BLAZE AT WILKES-BARRE

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., November 28.—(AP)—Fire today destroyed the building of the Frank P. Mathewson company, at Forty Fort, a suburb, causing damage estimated at $1,000,000. Included in the destruction were 300 new automobiles and large quantities of supplies and parts.

The Mathewson plant originally was built for the manufacture of automobiles of that name. During the war it was taken over by the government and more than doubled in size. In addition to the Mathewson automobile agency it housed the E. J. Mathewson company and the Belmont Silk company. The Wilkes-Barre and Motor Bus company, also occupied a section, but escaped serious damage.

Queen of Dolls Offered "VANITY FLOSSIE" IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT In Big Constitution Contest

All aboard for Christmas-land! Have you caught the spirit of Santa Claus time, now that the holidays are less than a month distant? If not take this tip:

Drop into the city circulation department of The Constitution today and take one look at "Vanity Flossie," the queen of all dolls; the most beautiful and colorful of Christmas toys will rush over in a flood.

You'll want a "Vanity Flossie" for Little Sister, either as a help to old Santa or as a personal gift—and "Vanity Flossie" is yours for the asking, free!

The Constitution is offering in a full page advertisement in this issue one of the gorgeous, cuddly dolls, and you can win one without spending a single penny and with very little effort. Turn to the page ad and read the full details of the generous offer—then you'll get busy.

As for "Vanity Flossie," she's easily the most costly, durable and beautiful doll ever offered by an Atlanta paper; one you'd say was made only for the children of the wealthy. What her price would be at retail doesn't matter, but it would stagger you and put a real strain on your pocketbook.

The gorgeous doll presents a new and attractive feature, one found only in dolls of the most expensive and exclusive make. She has rubber arms, so soft and life-like that they feel like the hands of a real, live baby; arms that will delight the heart of any little mother in all the south. The hands can be made to open and shut, and "Vanity Flossie" will grasp a mirror, a brush, a cup or any other article at will.

In addition, she has big blue eyes that roll and wink and go to sleep, and when she wakes up she calls "Mama" just like a real baby. From the patent-leather toes of her dainty slippers to the satin ribbon about her golden, life-like hair, she's elaborately outfitted in fine, colorful clothes. You could talk all day and still not tell all the wonderful things about "Vanity Flossie."

A comparison of this wonder doll with others offered you will convince you that "Vanity Flossie" is infinitely superior, and you won't hesitate one moment in going out to win her.

The service you are required to perform in return for winning a "Vanity Flossie" doll is both pleasant and easy. The full page advertisement in this issue will supply you with all the details, and you'll find that De and the neighbors and friends will cheerfully all.

Turn to the advertisement right now—then get busy.

RADIO-ING The Air Waves.

BY WILL H. SMITH.

Sunday afternoon and evening was big in radio returns, notwithstanding the fact that receptive conditions were anything but good. We experienced interference of one sort or another from early evening until the late programs closed. However, Atlanta was blessed by the presence of Allan McQuhae, famous tenor, whose voice has been heard often during the past year from the WEAF string in the interests of the Atwater Kent company.

McQuhae, who sang from WSB, followed a broadcast, earlier in the day, from the same station of the symphony orchestra concert, under the direction of Enrico Leide, at Loew's Grand theater. Both events were of the highest nature and deserve special commendation at this time. Enrico Leide, skilled musician as he is, has done much with local talent and built a strong, well-balanced symphony orchestra that promises to put Atlanta in the forefront in this particularly difficult department of music. Most of the larger cities of the country are developing symphonic entities and it Atlanta carries on much credit will go to Enrico Leide.

In addition to the talent heard locally, we had the pleasure of hearing Lucresia Bori, the famous Italian soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, during the Atwater Kent hour broadcast by the WEAF string from the New York studios at 8:15 o'clock last night. Her rendition of "Jewels of the Madonna," "Marriage of Figaro" and "La Primavera," three extremely colorful numbers, was remarkably clear. Her voice proved to be an exceptionally good radio voice. We had rather anticipated more or less distortion in our loud speaker when she was announced as the star of the Atwater Kent program for she is famous for her range and ability to assault the high notes of the scale, but last night's performance was anything but a failure. Through her remarkable ability we have added another star to our radio catalogue.

Grieg Program. As usual the Atwater Kent orchestra acquitted itself successfully in its rendition of selections from "Carols." To anyone appreciating Edward Grieg, Miss Astrid Fjeld's recital from WJZ should have made a strong appeal. Miss Fjeld ventured forth to New York several years ago from the plains of the Dakotas, where her father settled after coming to America from Norway. Her father was a great friend of Grieg's and it is thought, Miss Astrid's mastery of this difficult music is due in a large part to her knowledge of the composer. She sang Grieg's contribution "To Norway," with a power and tenderness of interpretation possible only in one that is native born.

Another Opera Star. Later in the evening we heard a bit of the Maxwell House program from WJZ where Marie Sundelius and WJZ Cornell were the soloists of the hour. Miss Sundelius, from the land of the midnight sun, she is, however, a Swede, and holds the berth of prima donna soprano with the Metropolitan Opera company. Cornell, at the piano, played the "Persian Love Song" with a mastery touch that made good radio for the Dial Twister.

All in all, it was a wonderful evening, thanks to Berry Cochran, of the Cochran Electric company, who sent this Stevedyne out for us to use. It sure does have mighty good tonal quality.

NEGRO FACES TRIAL ON ATTACK CHARGE

Macon, Ga., November 28.—(AP)—Willie McCallum, 17, negro, who has been in the Bibb county jail for a week accused of attempted criminal assault on a four-year-old white child of Sumter county, was taken to Americus tonight to stand trial tomorrow morning.

Christian Unity Need of World, Says Rev. Belk

"The world doesn't judge us by what we say, but what we do," said Rev. S. R. Belk, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, south, in a forceful sermon Sunday night, before a large congregation, taking his text from the Acts of the Apostles, 38th verse: "And He went about doing good."

Stressing the necessity of unity of purpose in order that greater good could be accomplished for the Master, Rev. Belk declared that all Christians, regardless of their religious faiths, should come together in an effort to realize the duties imposed upon them, and to work for that single purpose.

"Religion is doing our full duty first where our lot falls and what God commands us to do," said Rev. Dr. Belk. "The mother will find her duty in caring for her children and the like, the father in supporting his family, the minister will find his in eight hours work a day for the Master, the physician will find his in the sick chamber, and so on. But in the end it's such a great thing, my friends, to just keep going about doing good. A man can be a good man in one place as well as in another if he possesses the spirit of the Savior."

"You know, men, we've got an idea that the Ten Commandments were written for some higher saints. And we have an idea they were written for just the good folks. But they were not. They were written for all of us, white and black, Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Episcopalian, or whatever your religion may be."

"Religion, then, is to the heart just what health is to the body. The greatest science in the world, is the science of living in the righteous way every day. Science is the demonstration of a thing; religion is a demonstration of the Godly life."

Preceding his sermon, Rev. Dr. Belk informed the congregation that he and the church officials were greatly

GOVERNOR WHITFIELD READY FOR OPERATION

Memphis, Tenn., November 28.—(AP) Asserting that "whatever the outcome of his operation is, it is for the best," Governor Henry L. Whitfield, of Mississippi, tonight smiled in the face of an ordeal which will cost him his left leg Tuesday morning.

The chief executive of Mississippi will undergo an operation at Campbell's clinic here for the amputation of his leg, made necessary by the ravages of a malignant bone disease.

The condition of Governor Whitfield was reported from his bedside tonight as "fairly good." Mrs. Whitfield, who has been his constant attendant since he has been in the hospital, making the report.

BIG BETHEL CHOR IN CONCERT TONIGHT

A capacity crowd is expected to attend the concert of choir No. 1 of Big Bethel A. M. E. church tonight at 8 o'clock, according to announcement by those in charge, who report a large sale of advance tickets. The concert was indorsed as a worthy cause Sunday by both white and colored preachers, who pointed out that proceeds are to be devoted to the building funds of Big Bethel and Holmes institute.

The selections on the program include familiar negro spirituals and melodies, which will be presented by the Big Bethel choir, augmented by the Holmes Institute Glee club. The program will be opened by the Rev. B. K. Holmes, president of the institute and master of ceremonies. Brief addresses will be delivered by various pastors on the subject, "Inter-Racial Cooperation." Special provisions have been made to care for the large number of white patrons which such a concert usually draws.

Sheppard, Guthrie Are Given Berths On All-S.I.A.A. Team

Centenary Lands Only One Man on All-Star Team—Many Stars Are Included in Make-Up of Mythical Eleven—Rebsamen Only Centenary Man.

BY ALTON REDFEARN.

In this, the season of upsets, many things have come to the front as "difficult football problems." And now we arrive at the time of picking "all" teams, which, by the way, is an extremely difficult task, and which has forced many a sports writer to the "side lines," rendering him hors du combat for further use until a slight rest could be indulged in.

Hence we arrive to one of those difficult problems—that of picking an all-S. I. A. A. eleven. However, after many hours of careful deliberation, weighing each player's assets against his liabilities, and also comparing each performer favorably with this or that player, we finally composed an all-S. I. A. A. team.

In the picking of this team personal observation was largely depended on, for the old adage goes "seeing is believing." The writer had the pleasure of viewing this season the most important S. I. A. A. dashes, and naturally it alleviates the burden somewhat since this team has been picked depending greatly upon the eyesight. Also the writer has been fortunate in having the privilege to come into close contact with several excellent S. I. A. A. players. These players were questioned and their opinions were of immense value in the picking of this eleven.

However, to Mr. Rebsamen, of Centenary college, newly crowned champion, was only given one place on the mythical eleven. This was due to the fact that Centenary has not played in these parts at all this year, and thus we can only have nothing but reports to base our choice on. The team lined up for that last Centenary we give unquestionably the center position by virtue of reports alone. He started his football career at the pivot position for years ago under the famous "Bo" McMillin, and ever since then he has been a stellar performer. This season he has been the sensation of the Centenary team, and this eleven was the sensation of the S. I. A. A. Therefore he gets the position without dispute.

It will be out of the ordinary to enter into any lengthy discussion about the members of our all-S. I. A. A. team, for we have briefly explained just how and why each player was picked as the best for his position in the S. I. A. A. However, we would like to add that we are duly cognizant of the fact that there are several excellent performers who were left off, being just slightly below the man picked, or maybe, perhaps, to some football authorities better than the one we have picked.

CHARLES V. MAHONEY DIES IN LAGRANGE

News of the death of Charles Virgil Mahoney in LAGRANGE, Ga., reached Atlanta Sunday. He was 33 years of age. He is survived by his wife, one son, Charles M. Mahoney; two daughters, Mrs. H. T. Robinson and Ethel Mahoney, of Kirkwood, Ga.; his mother, Mrs. Lettie M. Mahoney, of Cannon, Ga.; two brothers, E. V. and Robert Mahoney, of Lenoir, Ga.; and one sister, Mrs. L. M. Fowler, of Cannon, Ga. Funeral services and interment will take place today at Lenoir, the Rev. Dr. Earnest Quice officiating.

MACON PASTOR GIVEN CAR BY MEMBERS

Macon, Ga., November 28.—(AP)—When Dr. Walter Anthony concluded his sermon at Mulberry Street Methodist church this morning, the congregation presented him with a sedan car. Dr. Anthony ended his service at Mulberry church and will go to Wesley Monumental church in Savannah, where he was assigned by the south Georgia conference, during the week.

PROBABLE SHOWERS, WARMER, FORECAST

Warmer weather, with increasing cloudiness—probably showers this afternoon—was the weather forecast issued for Atlanta and north Georgia today.

Cooler weather was to follow rains of this afternoon and night, according to the official Washington forecast, which predicted a noticeable drop in the mercury for today.

Teams Are Preparing For Big Struggle At Spiller's Field

Tech High Warriors Will Face Purple Team With Memory of 3-to-0 Defeat Handed Them Last Season By Ford—Many Leading Players Battle Tuesday.

BY BEN COTHMAN.

Final workouts will be held this afternoon, and then Tech High and Boys' High will be waiting for the whistle to sound at Spiller's Tuesday, and their seventeenth annual grid classic will be under way. The Smithies-Boys' High clash is the outstanding game of the local schedule, and it always means a game that is full of fight and good playing from start to finish. The two schools are the oldest in Atlanta, and have turned out many college stars, and they have been playing each other on the gridiron since 1909, when Tech High was established.

Last year Boys' High won for the first time in many years, the toe of the late Pete Ford, kicking them to a 3-to-0 victory. Boys' High had lost every game on its 1925 schedule, having a green team, and no one could see any chance for a triumph in the Smithies clash. The boys rose to great heights, however, with Ford leading the attack for the Purple team. He circled the ends and went off the back, but was never able to push over the line. Then, with the ball on the 35-yard line, he dropped back and booted the ball over for three points and a victory for Boys' High.

A Good Aerial Attack. The battle tomorrow, however, is expected to be a different one from last year's. Boys' High has developed a good aerial attack this season, and Tech High has two good runners in Armie Waugh and Charlie Bardwell, who has been out for about two months, with a broken collar bone. Waugh has already shown his ability to get away for long runs, and has broken the record for the team this year. Bardwell is a good broken field runner, and is expected to give Boys' High a lot to worry about.

Breezy Winn, veteran fullback of the Purple clad eleven, will be called on to do his share of the line plunging and unless Sam Colvin, quarterback, is closely watched by Smithies line-men, he is likely to get away for long gains.

Both teams have been pointing for the annual struggle, and have been practicing hard for the past week or so. The game is to be played at Spiller's Tuesday afternoon and will start at 2 o'clock.

Crowd Disgusted.

It was a depressing first half for the Tech High fans, who were disappointed by the lack of action. The boys had a lot of fight, however, and when they went on the field for the second half, they seemed a new team, so thoroughly had the coaching staff impregnated them with a spirit of do. Michigan, on the other hand, seemed sure of victory and was a corky lot.

Shortly after the second half started Pennsylvania got her offensive going and, despite a stubborn defense by Michigan, began to score. First one touchdown was made and a goal kicked and then came two more touchdowns, as the game progressed. But, unfortunately, the referee was missed on the third and Michigan still had a lead of 21 to 20. The officials notified each eleven that only two minutes of play remained. Just after the third touchdown had been scored, and Chester Mines had missed the goal which would have tied the score, the referee ruled that Michigan had two minutes of play. Pennsylvania had to kick and we kicked far down the field. Michigan attempted to stall for time. Finally she was penalized and forced back until a punt was required to get the ball out of serious danger. They lined up and the kick sent the ball down the field in a wonderful punt.

Runs 60 Yards to Victory. Dick Marshall was waiting for that punt and it fell in his hands on the 40-yard line. With the ball under one arm, he started for the Michigan goal line and the Michigan defense started for him. Pennsylvania players were formed group of interlopers for him and fought off the defense. On went Marshall past the mid-field, crossing from one side to another; dodging and zig-zagging; squirming out of tackles and side-stepping others until he finally made the 60-yard run needed and crossed the goal line for another touchdown. This was the score 26 to 21 and assured a Penn victory, no matter if the goal should be missed.

The crowd went wild and swarmed onto the field, despite the fact that 45 seconds remained to be played. The officials insisted that these seconds be used and it required three quarters of an hour to clear the field.

TWO MEET DEATH AS PLANE FALLS AT CHICAGO FIELD

Chicago, November 28.—(AP)—Richard Musch, a contractor, and Edward Carlite, pilot, were killed today when their airplane fell 1,500 feet at Ashburn field here. The plane snapped as they were making a sharp bank, causing the right wing to collapse. They took off after having been warned that the plane was regarded as unsafe.

It was Musch's second fall. He escaped death narrowly last March when a companion, William Kaiser, of Chicago, was killed in a plane fall near Scottsville, Ky.

Electric Chair Model Is Shown in Appeal For Sacco-Vanzetti

Boston, November 28.—A model of the Charleston prison electric chair, complete with straps, wires, and capped sponge was suddenly exhibited before a meeting of labor representatives here today during an impassioned appeal in behalf of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, principals in Boston's famous murder case, now awaiting execution.

The assembly rasped when Charles Cline, I. W. W. leader placed a yellow box on the speakers' platform, drew a curtain and revealed the death chair.

Pointing dramatically to the instrument of execution, Cline said: "Sacco and Vanzetti are in peril of their lives. They will die if you, the working class, do not demand their release."

Cline produced a document purporting to be a pardon from Governor William Brewster of Texas and asserted that he had been imprisoned 13 years in Texas for "trying to aid the oppressed workers in Mexico."

RADIO progress has set a fast and exacting pace these past few years. One single type of tube seemed adequate ten years ago. Four years ago two types apparently served the purpose. And today, with its greater and more exacting demands for improved radio reception, the research and engineering talent back of Cunningham Radio Tubes contributes its share to radio progress with fifteen perfected special purpose types, each one efficiently mastering its particular task.

To know the individual and special task of each one of these tubes when used in your set will bring to you an appreciation of increased radio enjoyment and more realistic tone reproduction.

Consult your nearest Cunningham Radio Tube dealer—learn how the right combination of Cunningham Radio Tubes will bring your present radio equipment up-to-date. Be sure that your receiver has the right combination of detector, voltage amplifier, power amplifier, and rectifier tubes to give it present day standards of performance in sensitiveness—in selectivity—in tone value.

NEW YORK CHICAGO SAN FRANCISCO

Alabama, Stanford Only Teams To Claim National Title

1926 S. C. Champions Outstanding Eleven Among Top-Notchers

Lafayette Also Holds Clean Slate But Can Not Compare With Other Two Teams—Crimson Tide Is Given Edge in Claim for Nation's Grid Honors.

BY FRANK GETTY.

New York, November 28.—The football championship of 1926 will be decided in 1927.

Since Saturday's dusk found the Army and Navy deadlocked on Soldiers' field and the claim of Notre Dame has vanished behind a plaid eclipse, the winner of the Alabama-Stanford game on New Year's eve alone can claim the mythical national title.

Out of the chaos of a season of topsy-turvy performances on the country's gridirons, only three major college eleven emerged with clean slates. Stanford, champions of the Pacific coast; Alabama, champions of the south; and Lafayette, champions of Easton, Pa., were the only important teams neither beaten nor tied in 1926.

Met Few First Raters. Of these, we must eliminate Lafayette from consideration as possible national champions, for Coach McCracken's great team unfortunately met few first rate opponents.

Lafayette's schedule included only two eleven of class, Pitt and W. & J., both of whom scored but were beaten by the brilliant running attack led by "Mike" Wilson, the season's individual high scoring back.

Alabama's relentless Crimson Tide once more submerged all opposition and came through its second successive season without defeat.

When Alabama completed its regular season by defeating Georgia on Thanksgiving day, 33 to 6, the Tide had amassed a total of 251 points to 20 for its opponents.

Winslet, Holmes, Pickard and Barnes are among the best football players in the country.

Tide Has Strong Claim. Stanford's claim to the national championship has not as sound a basis as that of Alabama. The Pacific coast champions have beaten Oregon, Southern California, Washington and California, but otherwise the opposition has been negligible.

Southern California was beaten by a single point, 13 to 12, and otherwise appeared quite as strong as Stanford against the same opponents.

NEW RECORDS AND UPSETS

FEATURE 1926 SEASON.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. The 1926 general football season, closed except for a few farewell inter-sectional games, has been notable chiefly for an unprecedented "turn-over" among sectional champions and the shattering of all previous records for attendance as well as gate receipts.

The gridiron game has become "big business" and, as a result of one of its most stirring campaigns, clinched its place as the drawing power in college football as well as all its elements of competitive excitement.

Close to 15,000,000 fans, carefully gathered estimates reveal, attended the thousands of contests in all parts of the country while the gate receipts, through more difficult to figure, probably reached the astonishing sum of $20,000,000.

In a contest for 15 sectional championships of varied importance, only four teams were able to defend successfully the laurels they gained in 1925. The most conspicuous of these was the University of Alabama, which lifted the southern conference title for the third straight year to establish the foremost winning streak now in progress. The others, all in eastern folds, were Princeton, triumphant in the last "Big Three" round-robin; Amherst, winner of the "Little Three" crown for the second straight time; and "Bo" McMillin's Geneva array, champions again in the tri-state conference.

Two more 1925 title-holders managed to stay at the top by virtue of ties, these being Michigan, sharing the western conference crown with Northwestern, and the Army, dividing the service spoils with the Navy.

In the crushing downfall of champions, the most conspicuous were Dartmouth in the east, the University of Washington on the Pacific coast, Missouri in the Missouri Valley conference and the Texas Aggies in the Southwest conference.

Only Three Teams Left. Out of the melee, a complicated national championship situation remains, with Alabama, Stanford, new champions of the Pacific coast, and Lafayette, the only eastern team unbeaten or untied, apparently holding major claims to honors. These three are the only major eleven with clean slates.

The atmosphere for two of them may be cleared, however, if Stanford and Alabama go through with their proposed New Year's day battle at Pasadena, Cal.

Carnegie's elimination of Notre Dame has taken the edge off the inter-sectional clash of the Hoosiers with Southern California next Saturday, a game which previously loomed as an important title test.

It is difficult to leave either of the service eleven out of consideration, observers believe, particularly the Navy, which won eight games against formidable opposition before

ARMY, NAVY LEAVE SCENE OF STRUGGLE

Chicago, November 28.—(AP)—The football warriors of the Army and Navy left the scene of their first mid-western conflict today with mingled feelings of regret and satisfaction as they assessed the results of their spectacular 21-21 tie, on Soldiers' field.

There was satisfaction among coaches and officials alike, that the battle had measured up fully in thrills to the brilliant pageantry that accompanied the spectacle and the record-breaking throng of 110,000 spectators that were stirred by it.

But at the same time, it was a hard blow to the aspirations of each team, particularly to the title hopes of the Navy.

Fumble Aided Army. The fumble punt by Substitute Fullback Ransford that led directly to the Army's second touchdown, and tied the score was regarded by "Navy Bill" Ingram, Annapolis coach, as the "break" that cost his team a victory that would have given the Midway probably a stronger claim to national title honors than any other outfit.

On the other hand, Head Coach "Biff" Jones, of the Army, pointed out that it was only by a foot that the cadets missed triumphing.

"My boys put up a wonderful battle, and deserved to win," declared Ingram. "Of course, I don't want to take any credit away from the Army's smart play, but that fumble cost us the game."

"It was a psychological 'break' because it not only enabled the Army to tie the score, but gave them the impetus for a third touchdown. It was a distinct turning point, without it, I think the Navy would have won the game by at least two touchdowns."

Pays Tribute to Wilson. Ingram paid high tribute to Wilson, characterizing the play of the veteran Army star as "the greatest half-back performance" he had ever witnessed.

Hardwick, Hamilton, Caldwell, Edy Wickhorst and Shapley were singled out particularly by Navy men for praise. They were instantly cheered over the performance of Arthur Born, a former backfield substitute, playing his first season as a regular guard.

It was Born who "took" his brother, Charley Born, Army end, and made it possible for Shapley to circle end with the Navy's third touchdown.

The Army coach, Captain Jones, defended his strategy in starting the game with an entirely second-string backfield and several reserves in the line, a combination which was quickly pushed back for the first Navy touchdown.

"We had figured these men on a par with the regulars defensively, at least," said Jones. "I am not sure we would have been able to stop the Navy with any others at the start. You know they scored their second touchdown with our regulars back in the lineup. That Navy attack was the best and most deceptive we've seen."

Navy, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Cornell scored several of their biggest victories with field goals. Brown and the Navy exhibited the two most conspicuous forward passing games, where such attacks flourished among a dozen major eleven in 1925.

Complicating All-American selections, the season produced many new stars but few outstanding enough to pick up the mantles shed by such backfield satellites as Red Grange, Ernie Nevers, George Wilson, Eddie Tryon, "Peggy" Flournoy and others of 1925 fame.

The season was marked by the break-up of the east's historic "Big Three," Princeton severing relations with Harvard because of the apparent bitterness of undergraduate feeling. The Army's relations with Syracuse also were ruptured after a game at West Point marked by unusual roughness and an attack on the referee by the Syracuse quarterback.

Field goals came into their own as decisive weapons—putting the foot back in football—as the success of forward passing attacks waned, for the most part.

The Army's relations with Syracuse also were ruptured after a game at West Point marked by unusual roughness and an attack on the referee by the Syracuse quarterback.

Field goals came into their own as decisive weapons—putting the foot back in football—as the success of forward passing attacks waned, for the most part.

Navy, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Cornell scored several of their biggest victories with field goals. Brown and the Navy exhibited the two most conspicuous forward passing games, where such attacks flourished among a dozen major eleven in 1925.

Complicating All-American selections, the season produced many new stars but few outstanding enough to pick up the mantles shed by such backfield satellites as Red Grange, Ernie Nevers, George Wilson, Eddie Tryon, "Peggy" Flournoy and others of 1925 fame.

HAWK-EYE-ING SPORTS

BY DICK HAWKINS.

Two More Good Games.

The curtain has rung down on schedule football for the season, but this week holds several post-season morsels which should be delicate to the palate.

Boys' High and Tech High meet in the annual struggle for the championship of the two schools and that fracas always brings out the best in the two schools. Often it results in a great upset. The game of 1925 was an example of this. The Purple Hurricane won scarcely a game last year, while Tech High was having a successful season, but when the great post-season battle came along the Hurricane sprung a surprise by taking the Smithies into camp.

This year both teams have met defeat more than once and with the Smithies, smarting under the 1925 defeat there is much in store when the two schools meet Tuesday.

Then Saturday the dusky lads of the undefeated Tuskegee Institute team will invade Atlanta to do battle with the Atlanta University eleven. At the end of the season each year two negro teams meet at Spiller's field and usually more white people than negroes enjoy the game.

It has been our pleasure to see one negro game since coming to Atlanta and we can say without qualification that these boys play an excellent brand of football and play it in their own peculiarly interesting way.

Tuskegee Institute has a team which has brought mention from many sports writers in the south and Atlanta university has a good record for the year, so an interesting battle looms for fans next Saturday.

Gridiron's Shadow.

With the passing of football at Georgia Tech, basketball is coming into its own, but football may leave one mark on Tech's basketball team which will be hard to erase.

Carter Barron, star forward with the cage outfit, is now hobbling about on crutches with his injured leg in a cast from hip to toes and chances are he will not be able to join the team on its tour up through Ohio and Indiana during the holidays. Carter is still sanguine about the matter but the condition of his injured knee makes it seem impossible that he will be on the basketball court any time soon. It will be a loss to Tech but the Jackets have a way of recovering from losses and the loss of Barron may result in the development of some unknown.

Vadalfi Will Battle Dick Davis Here

Evidently determined to see that the mad career on the mat of Dick Davis, the California Cave Man, is brought to an abrupt end, Promoter John Contos Sunday night announced that he had one more heavyweight to toss into the ring with him.

It is about all that John can do nowadays to dig up opponents for the two-fisted, hairy-chested Richard, so quickly does he dispose of them all. But now John believes he has the proper man, in Oreste Vadalfi for the night of December 6, which is only one week away.

Mr. Vadalfi, if you will recall, is the 200-pound Italian giant, who downed John Paxos last week in the auditorium semi-final in something less than 20 minutes. He made a distinct impression on Atlanta matgoers, scores of whom urged the promoter to give Oreste a chance with the big Irish grappler.

Consents to Match. No sooner said than done, Mr. Contos immediately communicated with the Italian and got his consent to the match. Davis' court was easy enough. He is beginning to believe himself just about invincible, and it would almost appear so in view of his startling string of successes since the fall season began. If memory serves, Davis' court has never been whipped on an Atlanta mat, and the man who finally snaps his shoulders to the canvas is the one who will be acclaimed hero of the hour.

Exactly how much of a chance Vadalfi stands against the massive Californian remains to be seen, but he at least demonstrated a measure of ability in disposing of John Paxos with remarkable ease.

THE STORY OF "VANITY FLOSSIE"

"Vanity Flossie" is the latest, finest doll made in America. She represents beyond question the high-water mark of achievement in doll-making—the Doll Supreme for which every little girl's heart yearns.

"Vanity Flossie" is made with soft, flexible rubber arms. Just as pleasant to touch as a real baby's chubby arms. The fingers can be opened and closed, and the doll can be made to hold a mirror, a brush, a cup or any article. Only through The Atlanta Constitution can "Vanity Flossie" be secured.

The rolling eyes, with the winking and sleeping features, as well as the rubber arms, put the "Vanity Flossie" entirely in a class by herself.

"Vanity Flossie" is the most animated, durable, lifelike doll made. Everything about her, from her fresh and dainty dress and lovely hair to her real patent leather slippers and mercerized stockings, delights both children and grown-ups.

"Vanity Flossie" has real fluffy hair and the prettiest, rosiest complexion imaginable. She looks like a real, healthy American babe with a face as sweet and winsome as ever entranced a doting mother.

"Vanity Flossie" not only goes to sleep nicely, closing both her eyes and wakes up calling MAMA as a real baby does, but she can also be made to wink and blink at the will of her little mother and roll her eyes from side to side in the gayest, coyest, most delightful manner.

"Vanity Flossie" calls her mama in such a human, childlike voice that you can make anyone believe it is a real baby calling for her mother. She is accurately proportioned and adorably dressed and 19 inches tall—nearly the length of this full page.

Real Curly Hair—It's "Bobbed."	Head Turns on Shoulders.

Colorful Audience Attends Second of Symphony Programs

Atlanta again turned out one of her most representative and brilliant audiences for the symphony orchestra when it presented the second concert of its 1938-39 season at Loew's Grand theater on Sunday afternoon. With an attendance that almost filled the large seating capacity, some of the most prominent figures in social, professional and business life of the city were noted among those present.

They were rewarded by a concert of unusual charm, played with a perfection which told a story of many hours of careful and painstaking rehearsal by Conductor Enrico Liede and his men. The reception accorded the musicians was worthy of their performance, spontaneous applause greeting every number and, in some instances, forcing a repetition.

Seen in the boxes, logs and orchestra on Sunday afternoon, among many other distinguished Atlantans and guests, were:

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer L. Moore, former Governor and Mrs. John M. Slaton, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargatzis, Mrs. William Percin Nicholson, Jr., Mrs. Carolyn Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fischer, Miss Elizabeth Little, Martin Amorous, Jr., former Senator and Mrs. Hoke Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. ## MEN WHO MADE THE WORLD

THE EMPEROR RECEIVED CORTEZ OUTSIDE THE CITY OF TOLEDO, BEFORE A BRILLIANT GROUP OF NOBLES AND LEADING CITIZENS. CORTEZ WOULD HAVE KNELT IN THE ROYAL PRESENCE, BUT THE EMPEROR SIGNED HIM TO TAKE A SEAT BY HIS SIDE—AN UNUSUAL ROYAL FAVOR. THE BRAINY CORTEZ—WHO NEVER OVERLOOKED AN OPPORTUNITY—SEIZED THIS AUSPICIOUS MOMENT TO CONVERT HIS ROYAL MASTER TO HIS VIEWS. MANY TIMES DURING CORTEZ' STAY AT THE COURT THE KING CONSULTED HIM UPON EVERY DETAIL OF MEXICO, THE PEOPLE, THEIR CUSTOMS, THE COLONISTS, THE FORM OF GOVERNMENT IT SHOULD HAVE AND THE BEST METHOD OF DEVELOPING INDUSTRY AND AGRICULTURE. THE KING THEN CONFIRMED THE RANK OF CAPTAIN GENERAL OF MEXICO, GAVE HIM FULL POWER OF EXPLORATION AND KNIGHTED HIM. CORTEZ SECURED MANY FAVORS FOR HIS FRIENDS IN MEXICO, FOR THE TASCALANS, THE CEMPOALLANS, THE FRANCISCAN ORDER AND DOWRIES FOR THE DAUGHTERS OF MONTEZUMA.

Fernando Cortez

By DR. ELLIOTT SHORING,
NOTED HISTORIAN

MEANTIME DE GUZMAN, AN UNSCRUPULOUS CHARACTER AND HATING CORTEZ, HAD BEEN APPOINTED TO AN IMPORTANT OFFICIAL POSITION IN MEXICO BY THE KING. HE WAS BUSY IN MEXICO PLOTTING CORTEZ' OVERTHROW. HE COMPILED A FORMIDABLE ARRAY OF ACCUSATIONS AGAINST CORTEZ, CHARGING HIM WITH SEVERAL MURDERS, WITH ATTEMPTING TO SET HIMSELF UP AS AN INDEPENDENT RULER OF MEXICO AND OF DEFRAUDING THE ROYAL EXCHEQUER.

CORTEZ RETURNED TO MEXICO LANDING AT VERA CRUZ, JULY 15, 1530. HE WAS RECEIVED WITH REJOICINGS BY SPANIARDS AND INDIANS ALIKE. MEANTIME DE GUZMAN LOST NO OPPORTUNITY TO UNDERMINE HIM. CORTEZ' PROUD SPIRIT AND ACTIVE TEMPERAMENT COULD NOT ENDURE THE UNDERHAND METHODS AND PETTY CHECKS WITH WHICH HIS ENEMIES, WHO NEITHER UNDERSTOOD NOR SYMPATHIZED WITH HIM, OPPOSED HIM. TO BE FREE OF THEM HE MADE SEVERAL EXPENSIVE AND UNSUCCESSFUL VOYAGES TO NEW LANDS ON THE PACIFIC. (2 of 4 CONT'D)

Miss Goldstein and Dr. Silver United in Marriage Sunday

Of interest to friends and a large family connection was the marriage of Miss Kate Goldstein to Dr. L. I. Silver, of New York city, which was solemnized in the presence of the family and intimate friends Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, November 28, at the home of the bride in Boulevard Park.

Stately palms were the background for the tall baskets of white chrysanthemums which effectively decorated the room. Pedestal candelabra, holding white tapers, added a note of beauty to the scene. The ceremony was performed by Dr. David Marx and Rabbi Tobin Gefen.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Meyer Goldstein. Her wedding gown was characterized by extreme simplicity being made of shaded rose georgette and afforded a soft setting for her lovely features. Her flowers were bride's roses, white lilies and orchids.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held. Punch was served by Mrs. Cecil Cohen and Miss Mary Goldstein, sisters of the bride.

Mrs. William Silver, mother of the groom, wore a gown of jade georgette crepe with crystal beading. Her flowers were Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. E. L. Levin, sister of the bride, wore black net over powder blue.

After the reception Dr. and Mrs. Silver left for New York city, where they will reside. Dr. Silver graduated from Emory university medical school, is a member of the Tan Epsilon Phi fraternity, and is at present on the staff of the Metropolitan hospital, New York. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Silver and Dr. Louis R. Silver, of Tampa, Fla., is his brother.

Mrs. Silver, as Miss Goldstein, possesses a charming personality and has a large circle of friends who will regret that her marriage removes her from Atlanta. She graduated from the Girls' High school.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. L. Levin, of Indiana Harbor, Ind.; Mrs. Cecil B. Cohen, of Indiana Harbor, Ind.; Dr. Louis R. Silver, Tampa, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Goldstein, of West Palm Beach, Fla.; Miss Mary Goldstein, University of Alabama, and Miss Josephine Diamond, Chattanooga, Tenn.

SIX DUCK HUNTERS DROWN IN OCEAN AS BOAT CAPSIZES

Salinas, Cal., November 28.—(AP)—Three men and three boys who were duck hunting at the mouth of the Salinas river today were drowned in the Pacific ocean, when a sand bar carried their two boats into the ocean. Wreckage of the boats was washed ashore tonight, but no bodies had been recovered. The bar normally backs up the water in the river for many feet and when it moves out, it goes with such speed that a man in a boat is helpless. The surf ran high at the time and it is not believed the bodies will be recovered for several days.

HOPE FOR CHINA SEEN BY POWERS

Washington, November 28.—(AP)—A hopeful view of China's struggle toward modern and responsible government, despite civil wars and present political chaos, was disclosed in the report of the thirteen-power commission on extraterritoriality, made public today by the state department.

The commission recommended, however, only a progressive surrender of rights under extraterritorial treaties with China as fast as she is able to modernize her legislative and judicial machinery to insure adequate protection to foreigners.

Grave abuses of extraterritorial privileges by foreign nationals in China were admitted shortcomings in the system by which the powers apply their treaty rights and these were pointed out for immediate correction, and the growth of national sentiment among Chinese for abolition of all unequal treaties as infringing upon Chinese sovereignty was given significant place.

But the commission held that extraterritorial protection in China for the 254,000 foreign individuals and 6,473 foreign firms, the great majority in both cases being Japanese, cannot be relinquished except as China substitutes suitable laws, judicial procedure and courts to which their administration can be entrusted.

Crimes Cited.
In giving force to this position, the report cited a long list of crimes committed in China while the commission was sitting in Peking this year. In no case, it said, was any action toward punishment of the guilty taken under Chinese law, although numerous instances of assassination of high-placed Chinese officials, even of the judiciary, were included. Nor was there any question as to who committed the crime.

The report was signed for the United States by Silas H. Strawn, of Chicago, chairman of the commission. The Chinese commissioner, Wang Chung-Hui, signed with the reservation that his approval of the recommendations did not imply approval also of the statement made as to facts found.

Recommendations.
There were four recommendations, some of them subdivided. If they are "reasonably complied with," the commission stated, surrender of extraterritorial rights will be warranted. The first said that the administration of civil justice in China must be protected against "interference by the executive or other branches of the government, neither civil nor military."

The second declared that China should adopt a definite program for improvement of legal, judicial and prison systems; enact through legislative bodies, not by executive decrees, necessary codes for civil, commercial and criminal procedure and laws covering banking, bankruptcy, patents, land expropriations, etc., and provide also for the adequate financing of the machinery thus set up.

The third suggested that pending fulfillment of this program, the treaty powers "might consider the abolition of extra territoriality according to such progressive scheme (whether geographical, partial, or otherwise) as may be agreed upon."

The final recommended outlined a plan for immediate modification, in cooperation with the Chinese, of existing extra territoriality systems. Modifications included:

(a) Administration by extra territorial and consular courts of such Chinese laws and regulations as may be adopted.

(b) Transfer of "mixed cases" at law between extra territorial foreigners and Chinese to "the modern Chinese courts," without intervention of foreign assessors, existing special mixed courts also to be brought into accord with the "modern Chinese judicial system" and lawyers of treaty power nationality to be permitted to practice fully before both courts in mixed cases.

(c) Extension of protection to Chinese individuals or shipping interests by extra territoriality-protected foreigners to be suppressed by the treaty powers, which also should require compulsory registration of their nationals in China.

(d) Extension of reciprocal, judicial assistance between Chinese and extra territorial courts and officers, including enforcement by each of the proper writs and processes of the other, and recognition and enforcement of arbitral settlement of civil disputes.

(e) Pending abolition of extraterritoriality, nationals of the treaty powers in China to be required to pay a territorial settlement of civil disputes.

FASCISTS CAUSE RIOT IN BERLIN
Berlin, November 28.—(AP)—While Paul Loebe, president of the reichstag, was addressing an outdoor socialist-labor demonstration today, a shot was fired from a passing street car. The bullet grazed the head of one of the organizers of the meeting. Scores of angry men instantly sprang at the car, pulling from it a dozen uniformed fascists.

The fascists were roughly handled until another party of socialists and laborers, wearing uniforms, rescued them and finally turned them over to the regular police.

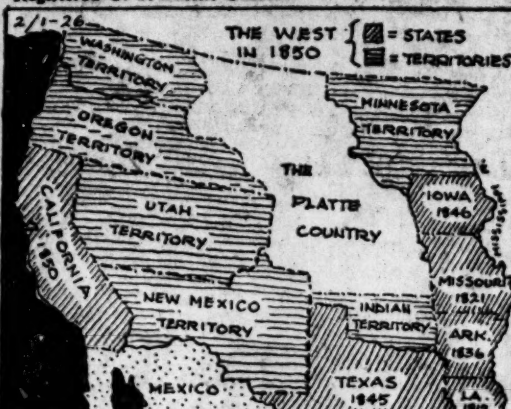

Two revolvers, one dagger and several slings for stone throwing, stolen with a large quantity of ammunition, were found in their possession.

BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCTION SHOWS SMASHED RECORDS
Washington, November 28.—(AP)—While bituminous coal production, stimulated in the United States by the British mine strike, had been running to high levels for weeks, the bureau of mines reported today that all records had been shattered during the week ending November 20, when 14,253,000 tons were produced.

High as was the production then, preliminary returns for the first two days of last week indicated that the record is likely to be broken again.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

BY 1850 THE UNITED STATES, WEST OF THE MISSISSIPPI, HAD BEEN EXTENDED NEARLY TO ITS PRESENT LIMITS. ALL OF THE WEST HAD BEEN ORGANIZED INTO STATES AND TERRITORIES BUT THE CENTRAL REGIONS KNOWN AS THE PLATTE COUNTRY, OVER WHICH ROAMED THE SAVAGE TRIBES OF SIOUX INDIANS.

THE YEAR 1850 BEGAN AN ERA OF GREAT PROSPERITY FOR THE NATION. ACTIVITY IN RAILROAD-BUILDING, THE GREAT WHEAT CROPS OF THE NEW STATES OF WISCONSIN, IOWA AND MINNESOTA, OUR GROWING MERCHANT MARINE, THE INCREASED PRODUCTION OF THE NORTHERN FACTORIES, POINTED TO FAST-GROWING WEALTH.

IN CONGRESS OLD LEADERS WERE PASSING AND NEW ONES COMING TO THE FRONT. IN 1850 CALHOUN DIED, FOLLOWED BY CLAY AND WEBSTER IN 1852. JEFFERSON DAVIS, OF MISSISSIPPI, BECAME THE CHAMPION OF SLAVERY AND STATE'S RIGHTS, AND CHARLES SUMNER, OF MASSACHUSETTS, THE LEADER OF THE ANTI-SLAVERY FORCES.

AN UNPRECEDENTED DEMAND FOR COTTON BY THE MILLS OF THE UNITED STATES AND EUROPE HAD BROUGHT GREAT WEALTH TO THE SOUTH. IN 1850 THE COTTON CROP WAS WORTH $100,000,000, AND OF OUR EXPORTS FOR THAT YEAR 53 PERCENT WAS IN COTTON. TOMORROW—AMERICAN LITERARY PROGRESS.

Keith's Georgia.

Headed by a galaxy of youthful and graceful dancers, the Lane-Traverses revue augmented by eight Atlanta dancing sprites who do the latest dance craze, the black bottom, the bill this week at Keith's Georgia offers an abundance of youth, jazz and comedy.

Chief comedy honors go to Ray and Dot Dean, who are well known as the "Laughing Stock of Vaudeville." Frank L. Whittier & Co., in "In Wrong," presents a risqué farce-comedy. More comedy is assured with the Romane and Castle two act, with Romane portraying the screamingly funny character of a black-face "wench." Pablo De Sarto concludes the bill with selections on the violin.

The screen presents Harry Langdon, in "The Strong Man."

FATHER-IN-LAW SUED BY WOMAN FOR $100,000

Louisville, November 28.—(AP)—Suit for $100,000 damages for alleged alienation of affections of her husband, Harry Weissinger, was filed in circuit court here today by Mrs. Pauline Jones Weissinger, against her father-in-law, Phil Weissinger, of Shelbyville.

Mrs. Weissinger alleges that after her father-in-law had learned of his son's second marriage, that by his conduct and actions he demonstrated objections to the marriage and considered feelings and thereby caused a separation between her and her husband.

The present Mrs. Weissinger and Weissinger were married September 28.

Mr. Weissinger was divorced from Mrs. Annette F. Weissinger, at Jacksonville, Fla., August 26.

THE TENTH STREET THEATER.
The story of a street gamin of Paris who aspired to stage honors, with Norma Talmadge in the role of the street waif, is playing at the Tenth Street theater today and tomorrow. "Kiki," adapted from the stage play of the same name, is a thoroughly delightful comedy dealing with the lives of the stage people of Paris. Kiki, so ably portrayed by Miss Talmadge, is a character that at once incites admiration and appreciation of the quaint humorisms that are part of the character.

West End Theater.
Richard Dix, who recently proved his sterling ability as a comedian, is featured in his latest success, "Say It Again," the first two days of this week at the West End theater. "Say It Again" is a rollicking comedy from start to finish, and it has been said that the man who can withstand the desire to laugh while seeing "Say It Again" is possessed of absolutely no "funnybone" at all. After a visit to the West End, you'll probably agree.

The Metropolitan.
One of the highlights of "Subway Sadie," starring Dorothy Mackaill, Jack Mulhall and Charlie Murray, at the Metropolitan theater today, is a night club scene in which the entire revue from one of New York's best known night clubs "The Silver Slipper" appears in action.

An unusual bit of realism is found in this sequence. A huge silver slipper, the largest slipper in the world was built, as the scene opens the dancing girl step forth from its interior. It is said to be a magnificent scene and to give a realistic idea of

CARE FOR PUPPY IS LAST REQUEST OF WOMAN SUICIDE

Chicago, November 28.—(AP)—Difficulties with their husbands, police said, caused two young women to take poison here today. One is dead, but the other will live, physicians said.

Grief over the arrest of her husband and the discovery of "another woman in the case," led to the attempt of Mrs. Patricia Werner, 21, to end her life. Her husband, Stanley, 24, was imprisoned Saturday following his being held to the grand jury on 13 robbery charges. The other woman, who styled herself Josephine Werner, was also held to the grand jury. She has a 15-month-old infant which she stated was Werner's.

Mrs. Werner, who is pretty and red-haired, while visiting her husband in jail, today swallowed poison. Doctors say she will live. The Werners had two small children.

After writing a short note to her husband, accusing him of treating her like a dog, but wishing him a "merry Christmas" and telling him where he could find the Christmas presents she had purchased for him, Mrs. Eva Hoffman, 28, committed suicide. The last line of her letter asked her husband, Edward, to "please, Daddy, take care of our puppy dog."

W. E. FORT REELECTED MAYOR OF CORNELIA

Cornelia, Ga., November 28.—(Special.)—The annual election for city officers here Saturday resulted in the reelection of W. E. Fort as mayor and the following councilmen: W. V. Crawford, H. K. Cleveland, I. T. Sellers, M. N. Crow and H. C. Stovall.

For exempting industries from taxation for five years the vote was 384 for and 11 against.

A test vote to feel out sentiment on a commission form of government resulted in 194 votes for and 36 against the question.

CREW OF AMBULANCE INJURED IN WRECK

Brooklyn, N. Y., November 28.—A surgeon, two patrolmen and a chauffeur, who were rushing in an ambulance to answer a call, returned to the hospital themselves patients. The ambulance had struck a curbing and overturned, injuring the four

SHIP IS FLOATED OFF REEF SAFELY

Mobile, Ala., November 28.—(AP)—The United States shipping board steamer Coronado was pulled off ground today two miles east of South Pass, La., by the coast guard cutter Tallapoosa, of Mobile, and the sea-going tugs Wilmont and Bayport, of New Orleans, according to a special radio message received here. After getting into deep water the Coronado wired to New Orleans for additional supplies before proceeding to Galveston. The vessel was undamaged.

KRASSIN'S ASHES
REACHES BERLIN

Nov. 28. (The Constitution and the Chicago Tribune.)
Berlin, Nov. 28.—The urn containing the ashes of the late communist envoy to Great Britain, Leonid Krassin, is expected to arrive late tonight when it will be placed in state at the Soviet embassy here. Tomorrow the Bolshevik mourners will march down Unter den Linden past the ex-ambassador's place.

Not only the communists, but the national socialists, republican reichs-banner and fascists have staged demonstrations for today.

Through police troops kept hurrying through town, countless free-for-all fights marked the day. One man was severely wounded by a wild gun shot. 12 others were less seriously hurt and 60 were arrested.

Workings of High Finance Explained

N. Y. Stock Exchange, One of World's Greatest Markets, Is One of Least Understood.

This is the second of two articles explaining the purpose and workings of the New York Stock Exchange, and stock exchanges in general. The articles are intended for the layman who knows little nothing of the intricacies of high finance and are written so he can easily understand them. The first article, in The Constitution Sunday, told the use of the stock exchange and its relation to corporation development.—Editor.

BY FRED R. RIPLEY.

Special Financial Writer of EFS and
The Constitution.

(Copyright, 1926, by The Constitution.)

The selling price of seats on the New York Stock Exchange is rising rapidly.

The price at present is well above

$150,000, it was indicated the other day, when a seat changed hands. Last year 84 of these seats were transferred, with the price ranging from $80,000 to $150,000. In 1921 the average price was $77,000, which shows how increasingly valuable membership in
